member in theirabsence shall be forwarded by an appropriate departmenta committee to the appropriate dan.

- (e) The dean shallinitiate a review of all applications by a faculty committee. In this review, the quality of the proposal shall be the primary criterion. The committee should also bear in mind the necessity of providing adequate coverage for the faculty member in their absence and the necessity for maintenance of departmental and college standards and responsibilities of all ongoing programs. Deans shall assure that all leaves in the college are recommended on abreak even or "no cost basis to the college. Approvedwo-semester leaves may not subsequently be reduced to -sneenester leaves unless mutually agreed upby the faculty member and the provost. If the number of proposals exceed the number that can be supported without additional cost or if all applicants cannot be accommodated because of bona fide instonal obligations, then the each may limit the number of proposals that are recommended by the college. In this case, the committee should prioritize the proposals with positive recommendations being determined in the following order:
  - (i) First, faculty members who were denied leave due to funding shortfalls in the previous year;
  - (ii) Second, faculty members who have applied for a full-year leave;
  - (iii) Third, faculty members who have never had a professional leave
  - (iv) Fourth, faculty members with the longest time since their last professional leave;

- (v) Fifth, faculty members with the longest continuous full-time service in the university.
