(A) Faculty members are frequently called upon to render professional counsel or service to public or private agencies for which compensation is direct and in excess of the terms of university contracts. Such services are encouraged if they fulfill a responsibility of the university to the community at large and provide invaluable professional experiences. It is understood, however, that such activities shall in no way limit the extent or quality of a faculty member's obligation to the university or their profession. There are three levels of such activities:

(1) Activities that have a minimal impact on the faculty
