(C) Policy approval process

- (1) New policies or changes to existing policies may be initiated by the president, the provost, any vice president, or in the case of faculty policies and bylaws, by the faculty senate. Recommendations for new or revised policies shall be proposed to the provost or the appropriate vice president by any member of the university community. Once the provost or a vice president approves a policy proposal, the provost or vice president will appoint a responsible official for the policy who will then forward the policy to the office of general counsel.
- (2) The office of general counsel shall review the policy for the following:
 - (a) Consistency in format and presentation;
 - (b) Conflicts between the proposed policy and other university policies;
 - (c) Consistency with laws or other external regulations germane to the policy;

(d) Consistency with the mission of Cleveland state university.

- Once the office of general counsel reviews the policy, it shall be returned to the provost or the appropriate vice president who has the responsibility for seeking approval hqt" yj g" r qrke {" htqo " yj g" r tgukf gpv" qt" yj g" r tgukf gpv@u designee.

An email notification will be sent to university faculty, staff and, as applicable, students informing of the thirty-day comment period.
- (5) Following the thirty-day comment period, the policy may be revised and sent to the provost, president or designee, as appropriate, for final approval.
- (6) The responsible official and the office of general counsel shall prepare the policy for submission to the secretary of the board of trustees for board consideration. The policy becomes effective after board approval, and ten days after it is filed with the Ohio legislative service commission.
- (7) The responsible official coordinates dissemination of the policy in cooperation with the office of general counsel.

A full copy of the Legislative Service Commission Rule Drafting Manual, Fourth Edition. May 2006, is available in PDF format at http://www.lsc.state.oh.us/rules/rdm06_06.pdf. Individuals who have difficulty accessing the manual from the previous link will find it on the Register of Ohio page, located at http://www.registerofohio.state.oh.us/. However, for the convenience of the campus community, a brief summary of the most commonly used formatting requirements follows.

Page Formatting

All policies should be typed in Word, using 12 point, Times New Roman font. Margins should be set at 1.5 inches for the top and bottom, as well as the left and right sides, of each page. No text should appear in bold face type. The only exceptions to this are the policy number and tagline on the first page, and the policy number, which should be repeated in the top left margin of all subsequent pages. Only new text may be underlined, and no text should appear in italics. No page number should appear on the first page of the policy, however, all subsequent pages should include the page number in the top right margin, on the same line as the policy number.

The Numbering System

All Cleveland State University policies are numbered and begin y kj " 55660' Vj ku" pwo dgt" ku" j g" Wpkxgtukx{øu" õci gpe{" pwo dgtö" cpf " references the fact that the University was created by the Ohio legislature under Chapter 3344 of the Revised Code. Tag Line

The tag line consists of the agency, chapter, and policy number, along with the policy title, and appears only on the first page. The title should be a word or phrase that clearly and concisely describes the $r q r e^{\circ}$ # {

LETTERING AND NUMBERING OF PARAGRAPHS

Paragraphs of the: Appear As:

First Rank (A), (B), (C), etc.

Second Rank (1), (2), (3), etc.

Third Rank (a), (b), (c), etc. Fourth Rank (i), (ii), (iii), etc. Fifth Rank (a), (b), (c), etc. (lower case italics) Sixth Rank (lower case italics) (i), (ii), (iii), etc. Seventh Rank (A), (B), (C), etc. (upper case italics) Eighth Rank (italic numbers) (1), (2), (3), etc.

Format for Changes to Policies

If the policy being proposed for approval is an entirely new policy, all the text should be underlined. However, if making changes to an existing policy, the changes should be identified as follows:

All text being removed from the policy entirely or being removed from that section of the policy should be indicated by use of a strike through.

Grammar and Style for Policy Drafting

Policies should be drafted as gender neutral, thus avoiding the use of personal pronouns. For the sake of clarity, all policies should be written in the present tense and active voice so that the person or group tgur qpukdrg" hqt" cp{"rctkewrct" cevkqp" ku" kf gpvkhkgf 0' Vj g" y qtf "õuj cmö" indicates that a person or group must do something and should be used in ræeg"qhl'vj g"y qtf "õy km\o'vo"Vj g"y qtf "õo c{ö'ku'r gto kuukxg"cpf should only be used to indicate that a person or group is authorized to do something, but is not required to do so.

Capitalization within Policies

All University policies are written in lower case. Capitalization is the exception rather than the rule and is allowed only in the following circumstances:

- Proper names of people
- Names of primary sources of law and popular names of federal enactments (e.g. Revised Code, United States Code, Code of Federal Regulations, Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act).
- Certain code terms (e.g. Chapter and Title when followed by a number: Chapter 2743 of the Revised Code. The terms are lower case when not followed by a specific number: this chapter. The vgto u"õtwrg.ö"õr ctci tcr j .ö"õf kxkıkqp.ö"õugevkqp.ö"cpf "õcr r gpf kzö" are always lower case.).
- References to court rules (e.g., Ohio Rules of Evidence, Rules of word or phrase appears in quotation marks. Examples of where this would be appropriate include titles of publications, names of organizations, wording on signs, and mailing addresses.

Cross-References

Sometimes policies reference other paragraphs within the same policy or other University polices. From time to time a policy may reference another law or section of the Ohio Administrative Code. The most commonly used cross references are listed in the left side of the table below and the proper way of making the reference is listed in the right side of the table below.

Supplemental Information

At the end of each policy, there appears supplemental information. This includes information about the history of the policy, an effective date, certification and date lines, and the statutory authority for the policy. If a policy has been rescinded and re-filed as a new policy or if the text is relocated to another policy, the supplemental information will also include a replacement line.

For policies that are being amended, the existing supplemental information should be left in place, however, the previous effective date should be moved so it appears as the last in the list of prior effective dates. If the policy is being rescinded and re-filed as a new policy or relocated,
