

3344-28-04 General policies.

(A) Responsibility to report misconduct.

All employees or individuals associated with Cleveland state university are required to report observed, suspected, or apparent academic research misconduct to the research integrity officer. If university. Instances of apparent retaliation will be reviewed by the research integrity officer for appropriate action.