I. Approval of the Agenda for December 7, 2022

Senate President Kumar called the meeting to order at 3:00 pm and the agenda was approved.

II. Approval of the Minutes of the Meeting—November 9, 2022

The minutes were approved by acclamation.

III. Report of the Senate President

Senate President Kumar opened the final full senate meeting of the year, with thanks and noted that through the work of the Senate, many things are being accomplished, including the ad hoc committee on the core curriculum.

A moment of silence was requested in memory of Professor Edward Haymes- Department of Modern Languages.

The ad hoc committee had their first meeting and has started working on their charge. Dr. Marcus Schultz-Bergin was elected chair. The committee is beginning to review faculty survey data and anticipates having a report by April, and will send recommendations to the University Curriculum Committee (UCC). The UCC will then review and bring any proposals to the Faculty Senate.

Dr. Kumar reminded faculty that the ad hoc committee has representation from each college (roster).

IV. Report of the President of CSU

Int. Provost Sridhar reported that the distinguished faculty awards cycle has begun; the ad hoc committee on the core curriculum has met and is beginning their work; and that the leadership team will be meeting before the new year to discuss the budget, faculty success, and student success.

Provost Sridhar acknowledged the good and dedicated work of Dr. Joanne Goodell as the Director of the Center for Teaching Excellence. Dr. Shelly Rose will take on the Center as Dr. Goodell begins her planned leave.

X. Question Time
There were no questions.

XI. New Business
There was no new business.

XII. Adjournment
There being no further business, Senate President Kumar adjourned the meeting at 4:19 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

APPROVED ON FEBRUARY 1, 2023
Dana Hubbard, Faculty Senate Secretary
