Additional Disclosures Required for New Hampshire Employees

Payroll cards may be used, provided:

1. Consent. Before the employer initiates payment to the payroll card account, the employee must voluntarily consent in writing to the payment method.
  - x Consent may not be a condition of hire or continued employment.
  - x The written consent, signed by the employee, must include the terms and conditions of the payroll card account option.
2. Payment Options. The employee must be offered the option of receiving a paper paycheck.
3. Cash Access. The employee must be provided with one free means of withdrawing up to the full amount of the balance in the payroll card account during each pay period at a financial institution or other location convenient to the place of employment.
4. Disclosures. The employer must provide the employee with written disclosure, in plain language, of:
  - x All of the employee's wage payment options;
  - x The terms and conditions of the payroll card option including, but not limited to:
    - o A complete itemized list of all known fees that may be deducted by the employer or card issuer; and
    - o The requirements of the payroll card statute.
  - x Whether third parties may assess additional transaction fees.
5. Fees and Costs.
  - x None of the employer's costs associated with the payroll card or card account may be passed on to the employee.
6. Change in Terms. The employer must provide written notice of any changes to the terms and conditions of the payroll card, including the itemized list of fees, and obtain written assent from the employee that he/she voluntarily consents to receive wages to the payroll card subject to the change. The employer is responsible for any increase in fees charged to the employee before written notice of the change is provided to the employee.
7. Change in Payment Options. The employee must be able to discontinue the receipt of wages to the payroll card at any time, without penalty.
8. Expiration of Funds. If the card has an expiration date, the employer must agree to provide a replacement card before the expiration date at no cost to the employee.
