

A COLLEGE STUDENT'S

GUIDE TO SAFETY PLANNING

IN ou have questions about dating in general or a specific relationship, or in ou are in an unhealth or abusive relationship, ou deserve support and resources to help ou with our situation. You are not alone; our peer advocates are here for ou 24/7.

Loveisrespect advocates are trained on issues related to dating abuse and health relationships, as well as crisis intervention. This means that when ou contact a loveisrespect advocate, the will listen to our situation, assess how ou're feeling in the moment, and help ou figure out the net best steps for ou. You might brainstorm a safe plan together, or the advocate may be able to find some local resources for ou, whether it's a counselor, support group, legal service or whatever ou might need.

MY SAFETY PLAN

These are things I can do to help keep myself safe everyday:

| I will carry my cell phone and important telephone numbers with me at all times. |
|--|
| I will keep in touch with someone I trust about where I am or what I am doing. |
| I will stay out of isolated places and try to never walk around alone. |
| If possible, I will alert dorm or campus security about what is happening in my relationship so that my abuser is not allowed in my building. |
| I will avoid places where my abuser or his/her friends and family are likely to be. I will keep the doors and windows locked where I live, especially if I am alone. |
| I will avoid speaking to my abuser. If it is unavoidable, I will make sure there are people around in case the situation becomes dangerous. |
| I will call 911 if I feel my safety is at risk. |
| I can look into getting a protective order so that I'll have legal support in keeping my abuser away. I can see if there are any self-defense classes available at my college or university. |
| I will remember that the abuse is not my fault and that I deserve a safe and healthy relationship. |
| These are things I can do to help keep myself safe in my social life: |
| I will ask my friends to keep their cell phones with them while they are with me in case we get separated and I need help. |
