Cleveland State University is committed to ensuring a secure environment for our campus community. As part of this commitment, substantial investments have been made in controlled access systems, including key systems, access card systems, and electronic keyboxes.

Electronic keyboxes are secure storage devices located throughout campus to assist in controlling and monitoring access to various areas and keys. They ensure that only authorized individuals can access certain parts of campus, keys, or equipment. Keyboxes provide convenient access while maintaining security.

Accessing Electronic keyboxes comes with important responsibilities. You must agree to follow all keybox rules and regulations below. Failure to comply with any of these guidelines may result in suspension of privileges or further disciplinary action. If you do not accept these responsibilities, you may wish to forgo keybox access.

Keybox Access Rules
